Attendance Information for Semester II Final Exams

Here are some important reminders about attendance during final exams. Please pay special attention to when a parent or guardian should call in for their student and when it is not required.

Exams begin on Tuesday, May 22nd during 7th period

Wednesday – Friday are half days with exams beginning at 11:15

There will be a morning study period Wednesday through Friday for students who do not have alternate transportation. Bus transportation will run on its normal schedule.

Please review the following charts to determine if a call is needed to Attendance.

My student(s) ...	Call Attendance?
Will not be attending the morning study periods on Wednesday - Friday	NO
Will not be staying for their afternoon study hall	YES

There will be no passes for early dismissals, Wednesday - Friday.

There is only one dismissal time: Wednesday - Friday - 1:00pm between the two final exams.

If a student...	Then...
Has a parent call to leave school,	The student will go to Attendance to sign out.
Is missing the first finals period and coming in for a later final,	The student will have to sign in at Attendance before 1:00pm. Parent call required
Is leaving at 1:00 pm on Tuesday because of 7th period study hall.	The student will sign out at Attendance – no pass will be sent. Parent call required

If you already know that your student will be missing a period that requires a phone call, please make the call at any time on our 24-hour attendance line 317-594-4195; there is no need to wait until the day of the absence.

If you have any further questions about the attendance procedures, please contact the Attendance office at 317-594-4195.
