

Humorous Homonym Sentences

Directions: Using the list of homonyms, write 3 original sentences that incorporate your chosen homonyms and humor. Have fun with the puns. Underline the homonyms for easy spotting. (Don't use my homonyms.)

1. Bill, the contractor, billed me to build my home, and I hope the cement in my patio doesn't develop a crack like the one he shows the world when he bends over to check the foundation.
2. I get lethargically bored listening to lectures, and I often envision hitting Professor Huckwinkle upside his head with a board.
3. On our way to Key West for spring break, we constantly had to brake as we drove through small towns populated by the elderly who were dressed in plaid pants, orthopedic shoes, and knee-high socks and who were walking slower than ketchup when it first comes out of the bottle.
